Foreword

It is the aim of the sixty third volume of the Old Gold and Blue:

To stamp with permanence the fleeting events of our Preparatory School years; to give to the future the facts and faces of the present; and to add to the annals of Peddie the contributions of the entire school for the year of 1926-1927

The Board of Editors wish to express their appreciation for the favors rendered by Mr. P. H. Hertzog of the Peddie Faculty, and Mr. Orren Jack Turner of Princeton.

The Campus

OFTTIMES to every Peddie graduate comes the desire to gaze once more upon the buildings, nooks and spacious drives of Old Peddie. During his busy and active life at school he fails to appreciate the beauty of the very walls that surround him, and only after graduation does he realize the ancient traditions that surround Old Wilson Hall. Too little does he realize how he will miss his old environment and cherish fond memories of the spots trodden daily by his hurried feet. All hail, then, to the Peddie Campus; may it grow more dear to the heart of every loyal alumnus.

The work of the school is adapted to the needs of the following classes of students:

Those who are planning to take college entrance examinations in September. Those who desire to do intensive study in new subjects or in higher branches of subjects which they have heretofore pursued, in order that they may attain regular standing in the next higher Form. Those students who, because of unavoidable interruption in their work, will not be able to resume with their regular classes in September, unless they make up deficiencies during the summer. Those who have not done satisfactory work during the academic year and desire to make up their deficiencies before entering upon the work of a new term. New students who may wish to review work done elsewhere in order to acclimate themselves more readily to the Peddie scholastic atmosphere.

Color Song

(Nelson L. Greene)

Steady, Old Peddie is marching along,
Her sons are loyal ever;
Bearing her colors with shouting and song,
The Gold and Blue forever, forever.

Chorus:

Come join the chorus ye faithful and true,
Peddie our hearts shall rule!
Old Gold and Blue, we're singing to you,
Waving o'er Peddie, our dear old school.

Many the sons who have left her old halls,
But there is naught can sever,
Memories clustered 'round old Peddie's walls
The Gold and Blue forever, forever.

Sad be the day when we sing our last song,
Under her walls together,
Our hearts shall cherish her memory long,
The Gold and Blue forever, forever.

Vision and Fulfillment

SOME twenty-nine years ago there was conceived by our headmaster, then just entering upon his long term of service among us, a vision of a greater Peddie. At the time of which we speak, the present magnitude of the school was a thing as yet undreamed of. There were but three buildings on the campus and the campus itself was a comparatively tiny bit of ground. Since that time the history has been one of a determined struggle for expansion and progress, an effort crowned at last with almost unbelievable success.

One by one, new buildings and new lands have been acquired. Avery, Trask, and Coleman houses have been built. Our campus has grown in area to more than five times its former size. From the two tennis courts in odd corners of the campus and the cramped football field along one side have sprung our fine gymnasium, our two spacious athletic fields, and our eight tennis courts. In addition, a fine quarter-mile track is under construction. Moreover, in the last year we have come to a still greater development.

Chief among the needs of the greater Peddie was a new chapel and a new classroom building to replace the outworn halls of old Wilson. It is indeed a notable year that sees the accomplishment of a step such as either of these. Such fortunate years were the two past ones. For during nineteen twenty-five our new Memorial Hall was completed and opened for use and in nineteen twenty-six the remodeling of our chapel was completed.

CLASS OF 1916 MEMORIAL GATE

The first of these is a splendid edifice which stands not only as a most useful and important part of our school equipment, but also as a monument and symbol of two great dreams. It is the visible evidence of the power of one, and an impressive tribute to the heroism of the other. One vision is a vast ambition; the other a beautiful sacrifice. The building itself is an arresting proof of the untiring efforts and unswerving devotion of our headmaster and board of trustees toward the material welfare of the school. In its halls is also and more particularly commemorated the splendid, idealistic vision of those sons of Peddie who offered themselves to their country's service in the World War. In its main corridor there stands a bronze tablet on which are inscribed the names of these boys whom Peddie can never honor enough.

Strive as we may, our material recognition of their devotion to service is but a dim shining in the path of glory lighted for their feet by the torch they carried the way in a world dark with hatred and selfishness. No monument in our power to erect can adequately express the greatness of their offering. These boys who volunteered to give the whole promise of their youth in defence of their country and of the world's freedom, these youths to whom this great building is dedicated, and whose names appear upon its tablet of bronze, are a part of Peddie's tradition and a glory in her crown for all time to come. In the material good that this superb edifice will do to future generations of Peddie students, the memory of their courage and devotion will live and be perpetuated.

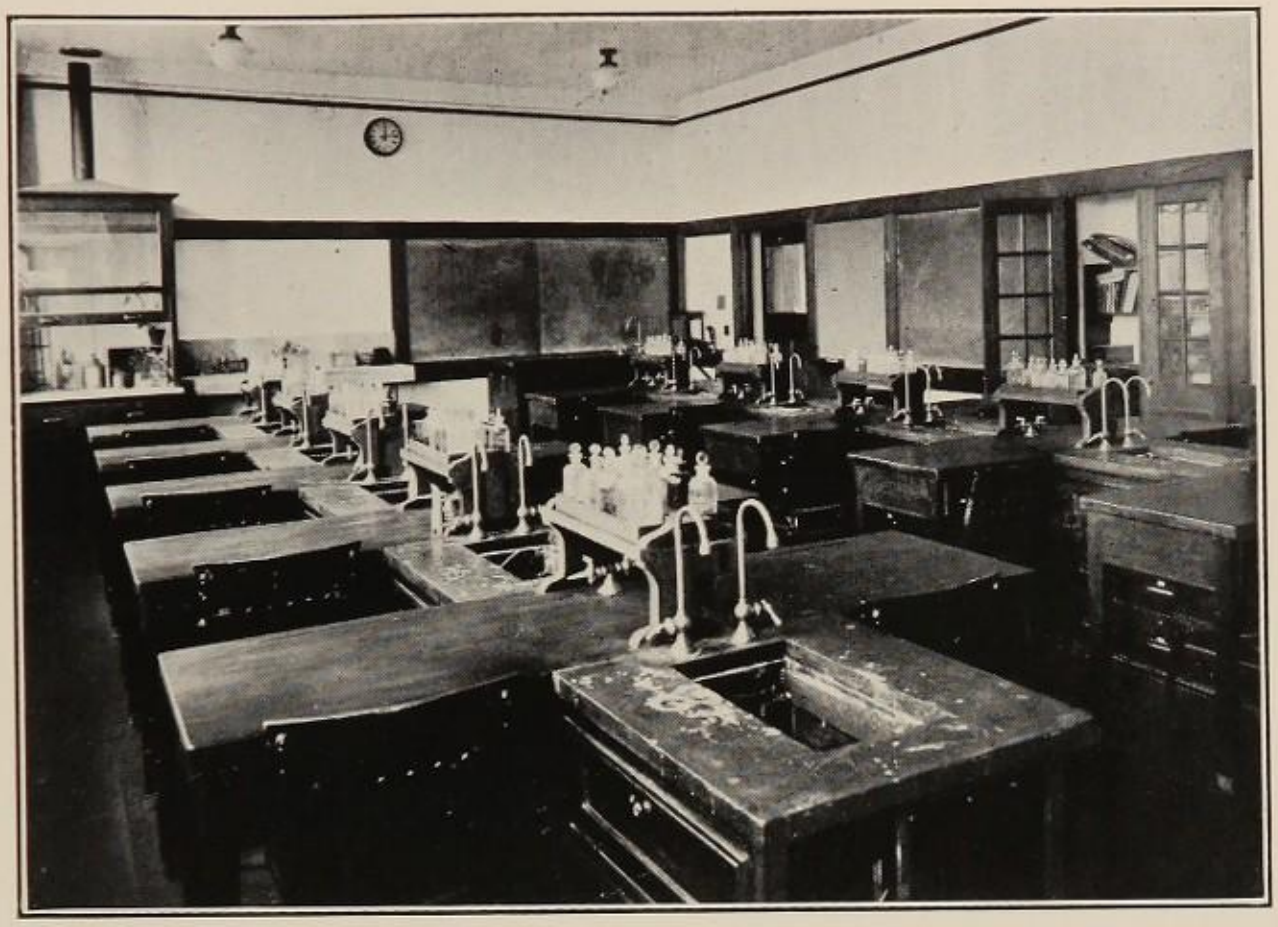
Aside from the significance of the structure as a memorial and a milestone of progress, it is in itself a building well worthy of the farseeing devotion whose fruit it is. Embodying the most advanced principles of modern construction, it is unsurpassed by any building of its kind in the east.



CHEMISTRY LABORATORY

Among the many improvements over the old quarters in Wilson Hall is the fact that each professor has his own classroom, equipped with a telephone connection and lighted and ventilated by the most up-to-date systems. Also the physics and chemistry laboratories are far superior to the former one, both in space and equipment. In addition, the school officials have offices on the ground floor in which their work can be carried on with the maximum efficiency.

To turn to the new chapel, only those who have sat in the old one can appreciate the improvement from the standpoint of comfort and beauty. And this chapel also is of "The stuff of dreams." It is a gift from the daughter of Francis Wayland Ayer, who for fifteen years served as a member of the Board of Corporators and in many ways endeared himself to the memory of Peddie. For a long time the project of remodeling our chapel had been in the mind of Dr. Swetland. In the spring of nineteen twenty-six the opportunity came to fulfil this project through the generosity of Mrs. Anna Ayer Fry. The gift was in the nature of a memorial to her father and through that monument his memory will not be sucered to die. Surely such a man should be remembered long and gratefully here in the school for which he labored, for his was a noble character and in him Peddie had a true friend.

The details of the undertaking included the enlargement of the chapel space by giving over to it the room formerly occupied by the parlors on the front of Wilson as well as a complete redecorating and refurnishing. The completed chapel is in a severe colonial style and is so tastefully arranged that it is said to be without superior in its way. In addition, the comfort of the student body is greatly enhanced and the room made in every way more pleasant. It is indeed another step of progress, and never will the name of Francis Wayland Ayer be forgotten while such a splendid gift bears his name.

ALUMNI GYMNASIUM

These are two of the largest single items in the program of far-reaching scope which has for its end the construction of a truly great Peddie. There is so much projected as to appear well-nigh impossible of fulfillment. Yet when viewed in the light of our recent progress, it is not more so than our present development seemed when Dr. Swetland came to Peddie. The magic which has wrought in Peddie such miraculous changes was but an earnest and tirelessly pursued vision that has been realized. There is more, far more to this dream; but is it not probable that the future will be as kind to us as the past and that all will soon be completed?

The Peddie of the not far distant future, as planned, will be an institution whose equipment is second to none, a real model preparatory school in every way. There will be a series of modern dormitories like our present Avery, Trask, and Coleman houses comprising ten in all. In addition, there is to be a large auditorium on the rear of Memorial hall and a fine concrete grandstand seating three thousand persons on the new lower athletic field. These are only a few items on the program, but they suffice to show what a future lies before our school. What will our next stride be?

The House Committee

THE strongest single influence in the sentiment and morale of Peddie emanates from a group of fifteen boys, which is known as the "House Committee." These fifteen boys are all leaders in some form of school interest; and the method of selecting the fifteen assures that every form of school interest will be represented by them. Together, they form a nucleus of brains, brawn and popularity, whose appeal always finds ready response from the general student body.

Nine members of the House Committee hold their position by virtue of some school office which they hold. The President of the Athletic Association (in other words, of the School), the Presidents of the two upper classes, the Presidents of the Y. M. C. A., the Captains of the four major athletic teams (football, basketball, baseball and track), and the chairman of the "News" are the ex-officio members of the House Committee. In addition three boys are elected to membership in the Committee by popular vote of the School, the only restriction being that the boys must have been in school more than one year. The remaining three members to complete the fifteen are elected by vote of the Faculty. The Headmaster of Peddie is also a member of the Committee, but he has no greater authority than any of the student members.

The House Committee is a committee that operates without roll-call, minutes, or instruments for enforcing its decisions. Whatever may be said at a House Committee meeting is always said in strict confidence and House Committee deliberations are never reported, either formally or informally, to either students or faculty. Its determinations are put into effect entirely by moral suasion through the personal influence of the members of the committee.

It would not be correct to call the Committee a mediator between student and Faculty, although it meets both on equal grounds. It is a method of expression and of creation of the best sentiments for both student and Faculty.

Membership in the House Committee is the greatest recognition of merit that can be conferred by the School. The members are installed into their membership during the Founders' Day Exercises on February 12. The gold pin of the House Committee, with its all-seeing eye, is one of the most coveted of Peddie honors. Few indeed are the House Committee boys who do not make for themselves successful careers in after life.

THE WINTERS PRIZE ORATION CONTEST

The Winters Prize Oration Contest is an annual function which was instituted on November 14, 1889, by the Honorable Byran Lee Winters. Mr. Winters is a Peddie graduate, having been a member of the Class of 1883. When the Contest was first established, there were two prizes, the first of ten dollars and the second of five dollars. Later the number of awards was increased to three, consisting of a twenty-five, a fifteen and a ten-dollar prize. Finally, in 1924, a twenty-dollar prize was added, bringing the total of awards up to four per year. Since its foundation this Contest has sponsored declamation at Peddie, and, at the same time, has provided one of the most interesting academic events of the school year.

OFF TO THE CHAMPIONSHIP

Review of Football

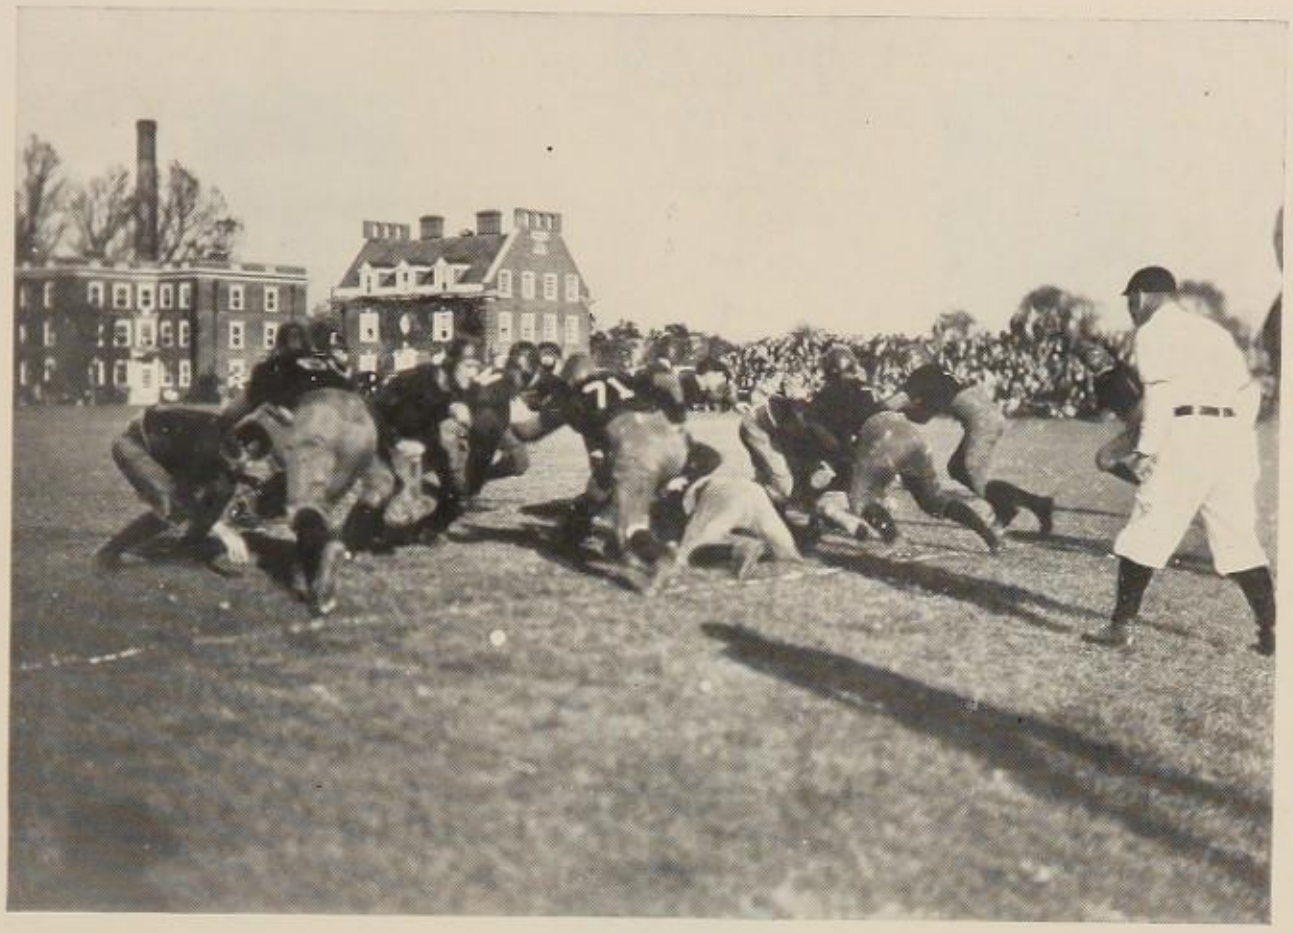
(By Coach Earl C. MacArthur)

The curtain has fallen on another year of America's great sport. It is a great satisfaction to feel, at the end of the season, that our team has lived up to early expectations. By the judgment of a competent neutral board they have been declared the best in their class in the state.

Early season prospects hardly justified any such expectation. In fact, the first week was accompanied by a feeling of depression. Husky, experienced players were scarce and none of our returning letter men were ranked as stars, although all were regarded as reliable performers. Perhaps the key to success was found in that very condition. It brought realization of the difficult task ahead and fostered real competition. It made for a well-balanced team and placed the emphasis on team work.

Another important factor was the contribution made by last year's excellent third team. When we consider that VanderVeer, Walsh, Williams, Hollingsworth and Sawyer all had the sound grounding in fundamentals which Coach Sprague gave them on the third team last year, we see the value of our third team policy to the school. Mr. Sechrist's good work this year may be expected to result in something similar in future seasons..

The fine leadership of Captain Elgin, the high morale of the whole squad, and the fine work of our assistant coaches combined to make the final result possible. "Cap" Hyatt deserves the principal credit for our hard-hitting backs, whom he taught to interfere as well as they ran. "Ben" Roman built a line that stood the acid test at Blair, though the material seemed crude at the start.



There is one quality of a championship team which cannot be too much stressed. It comes from physical condition combined with fighting spirit. The first two games showed that our team could finish with a punch and come from behind. They refused to ackowledge defeat. In the final quarter of the Blair game, in spite of the tie score, our opponents were distinctly outplayed. This finishing punch, this quality of coming from behind, is a dream which every coach hopes to realize in his team. It is a quality which few teams have, but which no really great team lacks.

It would be unfair to select one or two men as outstanding stars, but Elgin, who almost never took time out, and who played through the last quarter of the Blair game after dislocating his elbow, deserves our admiration as captain. Everyone on the squad recognizes the drive and fight which McKeown put into the team as quarterback. Rogers, Fryer, Kaniewski, and Meeks stood out on defense, and we all enjoyed seeing Austin carry the ball. But every man on the team played his part and deserves credit for giving his best.

I cannot close this article without a tribute to the sportsmanship of the schools we have played this season. The good treatment received at Pennington, the nice way in which Montclair accepted an unexpected upset, the courageous fighting of Benedict's when hopelessly beaten, all were fine. But perhaps best of all was the warm reception and perfect courtesy at Blair. Twenty-four years of unbroken friendship with Blair have made a relationship that means more than victories or defeats. Better than the thought of championship is the knowledge that we and our opponents played the game as gentlemen and sportsmen and finished with mutual admiration and respect.

Review of Basketball

(By Ratus L. Kelley)

From a standpoint of games won and lost, the past season could hardly be termed a howling success. Considering the sickness and injuries that handicapped the team throughout the season, the fact that no regulars but two letter men were available from the preceding year and that the schedule did not exactly fit the requirements of a team composed of green material, the season as a whole was a decided success. The feature that pleased the coaches, as well as the supporters of the team, was the development that took place as the season progressed and the brilliant form which the team displayed in the final games of the season.

Starting off with the strong New York Stock Exchange team, with only three days of practice after the Christmas vacation, the lack of team work and condition was very noticeable. The coaches had not had sufficient time to try out the new material and find the best combination, and as a result we lost by a wide margin. Had we met the same team later in the season the result would have been far different. The next game found a decided improvement in team work and condition; however, the short period of practice left its handicaps, and the Trenton Normal defeated us by a small score, due to inability to make good on our free throws.

The team next journeyed to New Haven and won a close, hard-fought game from the Yale Junior Varsity. The team was improving all along and it was not until this game that the winning combination was found. Nicholson, who up until this time had played a guard position, was shifted to forward, where he pulled the game out of the fire and continued to star in the forward position throughout the remainder of the season. McKeown filled the breach left vacant by Nicholson and he and Austin held down the guard positions in admirable style during the remainder of the season. A practice game with Princeton Freshmen that resulted in victory for the Old Gold and Blue was a great aid in preparing for the tilt with Yale Junior Varsity.

Brooklyn Poly Prep came down to entertain our warriors in a rather one-sided victory, in which all the players on our squad participated. Brooklyn Poly had a good team, but they were simply outclassed by a Peddie team that was just beginning to hit its stride. The game that followed found three of the first string men in the infirmary and we barely nosed out Fort Washington in an extra-period game, Nicholson again proving to be the hero. Captain Sawyer, Smart and Hippe were unable to participate in this game because of illness and their services were sorely missed.

The following week found Captain Sawyer and Hippe back in the lineup and the rejuvenated team played one of the best games of the season when they downed the highly touted Pennington team by a 31-19 score. Pennington took the floor as the favorite because of their defeat of Bordentown on the latter's floor—a previously unaccomplished feat for a period of several years. However, they went down to defeat before the excellent teamwork of our boys and the deadly shooting of Austin and Nicholson. The winning streak was continued at the expense of Princeton Prep on the latter's court on the following Saturday in an extra-period game. For pure and unadulterated excitement this game was not surpassed during the season.

At this stage of the season the sickness and injury jinx visited our camp and three games were lost in a row. Trenton High (the State High School Champions), Blair and Princeton Freshman teams defeated us in close and exciting games. Had we been able to present our strongest lineup, these games would, no doubt, have fallen into the win column. Smart and Hippe were the victims in the infirmary during this period. Hippe recovered sufficiently to play in one other game during the season, only to sprain his ankle and be out for the remainder of the season, while Smart did not recover in time to take part in any other games. Their loss at this stage of the season was a severe blow.

Asbury Park High came over determined to add one more game to our losing streak and they apparently were well on the road toward accomplishing their purpose, for the score at the end of the first half was 20-14 in their favor. However, our boys hit the stride that characterized their play in the remaining games of the season, and by completely outplaying Asbury Park in the final half, sent the visitors home smarting under a 38-30 defeat.

Next we struck Cathedral Prep, who had just been crowned the Class B State Prep School Champions. They were no match, however, for the Unofficial Class A State Prep School Champions and went down under a 45-29 defeat. Our entire second team saw service in this game or the margin of victory might have been greater.

The final game of the season was with the fast and clever West Philadelphia High School quintet. We had a dual purpose in our efforts to put this game in the win column. In the first place, it was the last game of the season and every one wanted to close the year with a victory, and in the second place, we were entertaining the team on which two of our players (Zahn and Nicholson) had played the previous year, and everybody was anxious to see these two players help entertain their former teammates. All (except those from Philadelphia) were satisfied with the result, too, for Zahn and Nicholson (as well as the other players) played their best game of the season, and the curtain was rung down with a well earned 34-29 victory.

Of the individual players nothing but praise can be given to all. To single out any one player who stood out above the others would be unfair as well as impossible. Nicholson and Austin (the latter playing in a guard position) were the high scorers, closely followed by Captain Sawyer. These three not only bore the brunt of the offense, but were mighty cogs in the defensive machine. Captain Sawyer proved to be an ideal leader in every sense of the word and his playing and sportsmanship throughout the season proved beyond any doubt his fitness to lead the team. He was the most versatile player on the squad, playing a bang-up game at any position to which he was assigned. Had it not been for his ability to fit in as a forward, center or guard, the sickness and injury jinx would have worked a still greater havoc during the run of the season. Austin proved to be, as the season got well under way, one of the best running guards the writer has ever seen in "prep" or high school ranks. He has a deadly accuracy when shooting for the basket and can, without a doubt in my mind, handle the ball more cleverly than any player I have ever seen. Nicholson was a star in every sense of the word, his fast and clever dribbling and cutting, his accurate shooting and his timely passing playing a great part in the success of the season. McKeown at guard was a bulwark on the defense, an adept at recovering the ball when in dangerous territory, and came through on many occasions with timely baskets. His generalship on the offense and his steadying influence while on the defense were highly important factors in every game. Hippe at center was an important cog in the machine. He obtained the tap consistently and put up a stellar game on both defense and offense. His sickness and injuries prevented him from playing in all the games of the season, and his absence was keenly felt. Zahn played a consistent game throughout the season, coming through to star in the final games of the year. He should be a very valuable asset to the team in another season if he keeps up the form displayed during the final games. Smart, while not playing in enough games (due to illness) to win a letter, was considered a regular. His speed, dash and fire added life to the whole team and his loss was sorely felt during the strenuous part of the season.

He should prove an important factor in the success of the next year's team. Levinsohn, Moesta and Kaniewski (the remaining members of the varsity squad) did not get into enough games to win a letter, but their sterling play when called upon merits the highest praise.

The prospects for another year are very rosy, indeed. Of the entire ten men on the varsity squad only one, McKeown, will be missing when the next season rolls around. It is true that the services of McKeown will be severely missed, but the remaining nine men will form a splendid nucleus upon which to build a winning aggregation.

Too much cannot be said in behalf of Coaches Geiger and Graver for their untiring efforts in helping mold a winning team. A great amount of the success of the season is due them for their hearty co-operation.

"Mike" Stump proved to be a very fine manager, and quite a bit of the success of the season is due to his ability to keep the team properly equipped and cared for. His corps of assistants also came in for their share of the praise.

Appreciation must also be expressed for the fine way in which the faculty and student body supported the team. What success we have had could not have been possible without this co-operation and backing.

Baseball Prospects

(By Coach Leslie S. Hyatt)

Preparation for the baseball season began during the early winter months. Meetings were held twice a week to study the science of the game as well as to arouse and stimulate interest. Prominent baseball men spoke at these meetings. Among the speakers were "Ira" Thomas, one of "Connie Mack's" lieutenants; "Bill" Clark, coach of Princeton; "Doc" Cariss, coach of Pennsylvania, and "Doc" Imlay, formerly of the "Philadelphia Nationals."

As soon as the weather permitted, outdoor practice was begun, with only two letter men available—Captain Jones and Parslow.

Soon a tentative varsity was formed, with Crippen, Parslow and Hippe as pitchers, "Jim" Rodgers and Zahn as catchers; Hollingsworth, Hines, Jones and Nicholson in the infield, with Walsh, Lucas, Hanover, Hicks and "Jack" Rodgers as the outfielders. Several changes have already been made and it is possible that others may follow, since the reserve material is strong, affording keen competition for most of the positions.

The play of the infield, both offensively and defensively, has been especially good, and their play, coupled with that of the battery has been responsible to a great extent for the success of the team. The outfield, due to inexperience, has not been all that could be desired, but a gradual improvement has been made.

The team this year is very fortunate in having "Red" Jones as captain. He is a leader who knows baseball and who, by his ability and spirit, exemplifies the highest type of leadership.

Mr. Sprout and Mr. Roman have both been of great help in the development of the varsity, while Mr. Torbet, coach of the third team, has also rendered valuable assistance. Doctor Norton's interest and help at all times has been greatly appreciated.

The team as a whole has played "head up baseball, showing a batting strength and a defensive ability which gives promise of a successful baseball season.

Track Prospects

(By Coach George Weed)

With the closing of the indoor season, which was quite successful—having taken second place in the State Championships, due to the very excellent work of Austin, Sawyer and Ely—we are now bending all our efforts toward a fairly stiff outdoor schedule.

With the exception of the above mentioned athletes, I knew practically nothing about the ability of the forty odd who reported for practice. Now, after about three weeks of work, I am beginning to line them up as to their relative ability, and the prospect as a whole looks toward a rather promising season.

The Penn Relay Carnival, April 30th, is our first regular meet, and while we do not have an exceptionally fast relay team, we do have a team of good steady runners, who ought to give a good account of themselves. The team will be composed of McKane, Rice, Mayo and Wise, with Reynolds and Cairns as substitutes.

The boys who are showing up the best, so far, are: In the 100-yard dash, Cobb, Levinsohn and Rice; in the 220-yard dash, Levinsohn, Mayo, Rice and Wise; in the 440-yard dash, Mayo and Wise; in the 880-yard run, Baum, Eddy and Reynolds; in the mile, Cairns and Coates; in the high hurdles, Huston, Richardson and Sawyer, the indoor state champion; in the low hurdles, Huston, Kirn, G. Lagerloef, Sawyer, Walder and MeKeown, last year's state champion; in the shot put, Austin, McKeown, Sawyer and Walsh; in the high jump, Austin, Ely, Richardson and Withrow, Austin being the state champion and record holder and all the others able to clear over 5 feet 5 inches; in the pole vault, Austin, who does over 11 feet; in the broad jump, Cobb, Levinsohn and Austin; in the discus, to date, Quigley shows up the best, although he is pressed by Annenberg, Cobb and Solimene; in the javelin, Cobb, Kirn and McKane; in the hammer, Parke and Williams.

Such a list of promising athletes is enough to make any team look for laurels.

The 1927 swimming team was successful, considering the fact that the season was started with only one letter man and with very inexperienced material. At the beginning of the year the outlook was anything but promising. Walsh, captain of the 1926 team, was the only letter man to return to school; Nigh was left from last year's squad, and there appeared to be a lack of material among the new boys. Notwithstanding the gloomy prospects Coach Sprout developed a successful team.

The Peddie natators opened their season on February 2, when they encountered the Princeton Prep swimmers in the Princeton University pool. The Peddie mermen, many of them swimming in their first meet, had not yet reached their true form, finally losing by a few points to a team that they outclassed in every interscholastic meet in which they were both entered. Endicott, Gaston and Curley were the stars of the day for Peddie.

The Gold and Blue mermen next went down to defeat before the State Champions of Blair. The Blair team, the strongest in the history of that school, was extended more by the Peddie swimmers than by any other team in the state, finally winning by the score of 42-20. The meet was much closer than the score appears to be. Nigh starred for the Hightstown team by winning the dive easily.

Rutgers Freshmen, with one of the best freshman teams in the country, proved to be too powerful a combination, and triumphed, 47-15. Nigh again featured for the Gold and Blue.

On February 19, the Peddie natators reached their true form when they splashed their way to a hard-earned victory over the Trenton Y. M. C. A. by the score of 28-25. Nigh captured his third first place of the year in the meet, and Endicott easily led his opponents in the breast stroke.

The team continued its good work when it swamped Plainfield High School. Captain Walsh and Siccardi shared the high scoring honors for the Gold and Blue team, each garnishing seven points.

Good work was done in the Rutgers Interscholastics, Princeton Interscholastics and the State Championship meet. In the latter meet Peddie placed third with nine points. Gaston was the "high spot" for the Gold and Blue mermen, placing second in the back stroke. Nigh placed fourth in the dive, Endicott fourth in the breast stroke, and the remaining four points were won when the Peddie natators finished third in the relay race.

Coach Sprout and his team must be commended on their creditable showing during the season. Mr. Weed, who assisted Coach Sprout, also deserves credit for his work. In the 50-yard free style, Bradley and Siccardi did well, and Curley scored heavily in the 100-yard swim. Captain Walsh again proved himself to be a worthy leader and placed consistently in the 200-yard free style. Endicott, high scorer of the season, was a winner in every meet in the breast stroke, while Gaston did well in the back stroke. Nigh developed into the best diver that the school has ever had. Besides the above named swimmers, Lucas, Hollingsworth, Mueller, and Todd also scored points during the season.

Review of Soccer

(By Coach George Weed)

The call for candidates brought out twenty-four players, among whom were four of last year's letter men: J. M. Adams, Jr., Captain; C. Platt, F. Stevens and F. P. Storms. The other candidates were more or less inexperienced players, so the outlook for the season was none too bright.

However, everyone went to work with a will and the team slowly rounded into fair shape. The Hightstown High game ended 3-0 in favor of the High School. We next met the strong Princeton Freshman team and were beaten 8-1 after a hard although raggedly played game. The team was then put through some strenuous workouts and improved greatly, as was shown when we played a return game with Princeton Freshman, losing by the small score of 2-0. The outstanding players were Captain Adams, Kashemsanta, Wilson, Jack Rodgers, L. Williamson, and Storms, next year's captain. Magan, Zahn, and Stevens also played a good steady game and did their part throughout.

Tennis Prospects

(By Coach Mark Swetland)

The loss of Briscoe, Farrand, and Hawkins from last year's team is a real handicap, but the improvement in the play of Captain Weeks, Barhite, Matthews, and Tiers speaks well for another successful season. The number of new players of experience and ability is very small this year; Boyd, Waterman, and Knabenshue showing up the best so far.

The spirit and enthusiasm of the entire squad is of the kind that makes the school and coach proud of their tennis team.

Review of Cross Country

(By Coach George Weed)

This sport has not, up to the present, received very much attention here and only a small squad reported for practice. However, those who did report worked hard every day and deserve a great deal of credit. Special mention is due to Baum and Eddy, who finished up in the front ranks in all contests. Others who did good work were Reynolds, F. Davis, Chalker, Twine, Barker, and Richardson.

Eddy was elected captain for next year. We are planning to make this as big a sport here as it is in other schools.

The Home of the International Correspondence Schools

Almost 10% of I. C. S. Students are College Men

THOUSANDS of college men are taking courses with the International Correspondence Schools to secure a practical knowledge of engineering practice that could otherwise be gained only by long and tedious years of shop work.

There is, indeed, no better way for you to supplement your college training and keep abreast of the changing needs of business and industry than through a course with these great Scranton schools.

Much of the material contained in I. C. S. textbooks is not available in any other form and it is easy to grasp because it is specially arranged to meet the needs of the student who studies at home.

We'll gladly send you descriptive catalogs. Please mention the course in which you are interested.

MEREDITH INN

In the foothills of the Catskills

Meredith Inn is famed for its genuine homelike atmosphere, its modern, comfortable appointments, and its pure and hunger-satisfying foods. It is a delight to young and old—to devotees of play and sport as well as to those who seek quiet and repose.

Glorious sunrises and sunsets. Breeze-swept hills. Wood-scented paths. Lakes and waterfalls nearby. Boating, fishing, tennis, and a stable of friendly saddle horses for those who love the sport. Golf, too, at Oneonta, easily reached by motor car.

Meredith Inn maintains a motor livery and accommodations can be had for your own car. If you motor to Meredith, the New York volume of the Automobile Blue Book gives detailed directions. Meredith automobiles meet trains at Bloomville, Delhi or Oneonta, when notified in advance.

Open June 1st. Write today for descriptive booklet, information about railroads and rate.

Something to be proud of

Remember this—the only thing that shows when you wear a cap and gown at graduation is your shoes. That's the biggest reason why your shoes ought to be right.

How about the shoes? All set with a snappy looking pair to make you step right up and get the old sheepskin?

We can fix you up in a hurry.
